FOREWORD

THE AMERICAN ELITE AND SOCIOLOGIST Presents in one volume a galaxy of six thousand representative Business Men, Directors and the Professions, Economists, Founders, Humanitarians, Social Workers, and Members of Elite Clubs, Societies and other Organizations prominent in the Social, Industrial and Financial Development of our Beloved Commonwealth.

These representative Citizens of character and influence, by their enterprise and thrift, by their activity and sagacity in business, and by their zeal in educational, social and public matters, have contributed vastly to the moral, spiritual and material prosperity of the community in which they live.

As Builders and Merchants, they have erected buildings and illumined the marts of trade; in the field of Science and Medicine they have obtained great prominence; in the arena of Statesmanship they have produced men of thought and men of action; while at the Bar and in the administration of Justice they have shown erudition and wisdom. As Clergymen, Educators and Lecturers they have occupied high places; as Artists, Musicians, Composers and Authors they have contributed profusely to social life; and last, but not least, as Members of Clubs, Societies and other Organizations, they have been an invaluable factor in the uplift of thought and progress in all lines of human effort.
